

A dying world

Lie after lie
We realize
The world is crumbling
Compassion, honesty
It's all lost through time

All the newborn
They will fall
The world is crumbling
Innocence, awareness
It's all lost through time

Humans must face the truth
They will have to pay their due
In blood
Or harmony
We need to act and fast
Or keep on agonizing
Kill them all
Or die in vain

Enemy of the mind
Is the sign
Controlling all the blind
Humankind
Enemy of the mind
Is the sign
Controlling all the blind
Humankind

Day after day
They will pay
The world is crumbling
Society, company
It's all lost through time

We all live in a dying world
It's all gone, its all gone
We all live in a dying world
It's all gone, it's all gone

All the town folk
Lost their soul
The world is crumbling
Submission, subjection
It's all lost through time
